

PIONEERS PLAN TO GET RELICS OF EARLY DAYS

Society Seeks to Replace
Valuable Collections
Lost in Fire

WILL ACT AS CUSTODIAN

Organization Would Care for Things Associated With State History

Transformation of policy of the Society of California Pioneers from one of inertia to direct action was outlined by John S. Drum, president of the board of directors, at yesterday's meeting at the Palace Hotel. As outlined by Drum, the plan of the society will be to rebuild the invaluable historical collection, which was destroyed by the fire.

Statistics and data, books and prints, pictures and descriptions of the early days are to be gathered by the society and made part of an exhibit in their rooms.

WILL NOT OWN RELICS

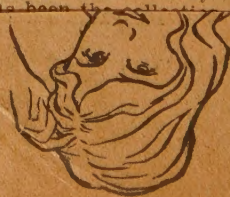

It was pointed out that the society will not own these relics, but will simply be their custodian. It was decided to take this course, as the society is the only organization which can devote its entire time to the work.

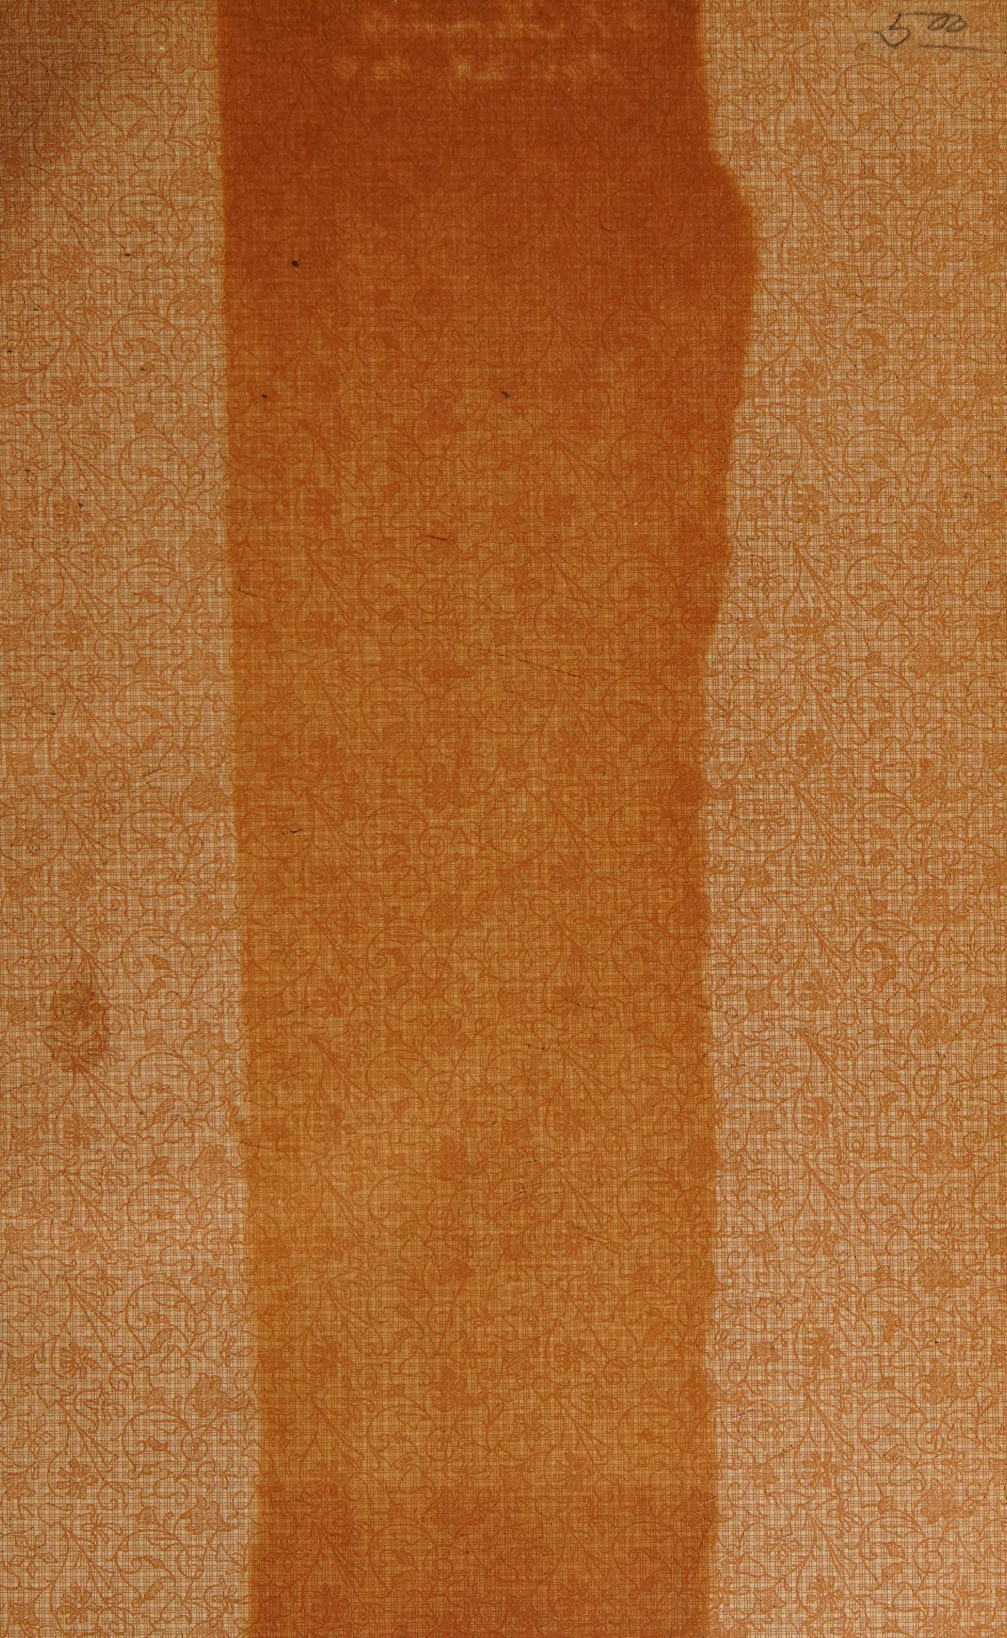

After telling of the plan, Drum called upon several members of the society to express their opinion. The plan received the hearty indorsement of all, and the meeting closed with the adoption of a unanimous resolution to that effect.

Such report shall be confidential and only submitted to the Directors.

2d. Not less than ten days before the regular stated meetings of the Society, the Secretary shall record the names of such of the applicants as may have been favorably considered, in the voting register, thereafter not to be withdrawn, together with the facts stated in the application, and place the register in the office, convenient for the use of members voting; also a ballot box, double-locked, for the reception of ballots, one key to be kept by the President, and one by the Secretary. A sufficient quantity of pieces of paper shall be supplied by the Secretary to be used as ballots, large enough to contain a single name and the word "Yes" or "No."

The opening in the ballot box shall be kept covered, and only opened by the Secretary during the period of ten days immediately prior to said stated meetings, from 9 to 12 A. M. and from 1 to 5 P. M., when a member not delinquent may deposit his ballot.

No candidate shall be elected who shall have not received at least twenty votes in the affirmative. No ballot shall be counted that does not bear the word "Yes" or "no."

5th. If the number of ballots bearing the name of a candidate does not correspond with the number of votes registered in his case, and it shall appear that the consequences of such discrepancy might, by any possibility, affect the result of the vote, the action in that case shall be declared void, and the name may again be presented, as before, during the succeeding month.

6th. No election for membership shall be announced at any other than a regular monthly meeting of the Society, and no application for membership shall be considered until the admission fee shall have been paid to the Secretary.

The Society shall elect as honorary members such persons only as shall have rendered distinguished or important services to the Society or to the State; but no person shall be elected as honorary member who has not at some time resided within this State; and such person shall be entitled to all the privileges of the Society, except the right to vote and hold office; provided, that the President of the United States, who shall have visited this State, may be elected an honorary member of the Society. Candidates for honorary membership shall be proposed at a regular meeting of the Society, when a statement of such services must be filed. At the next regular meeting such candidates shall be balloted for, and it shall require the votes of three-fourths of the members present to elect; provided, that there shall not be less than thirty members present, and in case there are not thirty members present at such meeting, then the vote shall be taken at the next monthly meeting, when the requisite number may be present.

BONDS OF OFFICERS.

SEC. 15. The Board of Directors shall determine the compensation to be paid to the Secretary, and shall fix the amount and approve the bonds of the Secretary and Treasurer, which bonds shall be placed in the possession of the President for safe keeping.

AUDITING COMMITTEE.

SEC. 16. The President shall appoint an auditing committee, who shall examine all accounts against the Society; and no bill or account shall be paid unless the same shall have been indorsed "approved," and signed by the Chairman of said Committee, nor until the warrant on the Treasurer in payment of the same shall have been signed by the President and countersigned by the Secretary.

VACANCY.

SEC. 17. In case of the decease or resignation of the President or Treasurer of the Society, or the existence of a vacancy in either of said offices, the Board of Directors shall call a meeting of the Society within thirty days thereafter, when a successor may be elected to fill the unexpired term of such officer, provided there shall be thirty members present.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

SEC. 18. 1st. The Secretary of the Society shall, at least ten days prior to the annual election, make two lists of the names and residences, if known, of all members then entitled to vote at the ensuing election, and place one list in the Secretary's office convenient for examination by the members and deliver the other to the Board of Election. The Secretary shall add thereto the names and residences, if known, of those who may subsequently qualify to vote at said election.

2d. The President shall, prior to the annual election, designate one Inspector and two Judges of Election, who shall constitute the Board of Election. The Board may appoint such clerks as it may deem necessary. All the foregoing shall be members of the Society, and duly qualified to vote at said election. The Board of Election shall receive, count and canvass each ballot cast, and make return thereof to the President immediately after the result is known.

3d. The Board of Election shall retain all the ballots cast for ten days, and should it not receive notice of contest before the expiration of that time, the Board of Election shall destroy the ballots; but in the event of such notice being given, the ballots shall be retained by the Board until such contest is determined.

4th. The annual election for officers of the Society shall be held between the hours of 9 o'clock A. M., and 5 o'clock P. M. No person shall be eligible to any office unless he shall have been a member of the Society for a period of not less than two years.

DECEASED MEMBERS.

SEC. 19. The President, upon the decease of any member in good standing, shall appoint an Obituary Committee, and the Obituary and Resolutions shall be filed with the Secretary and read by title before the Society at its next meeting, and adopted by a rising vote, and the Secretary shall communicate the proceedings to the family or relatives of deceased.

REMISSION OF DUES.

SEC. 20. When the Board of Directors shall be satisfied that any worthy member of the Society is unable, for the time being, to pay the monthly dues hereinbefore prescribed, it shall have the power to remit such dues. But if any member of the Society, having the ability to pay the monthly dues hereinbefore described, shall refuse to pay the same, and shall not, at the time of such refusal, render an excuse that in the opinion of the Board of Directors shall be satisfactory, he shall be debarred from visiting the rooms of the Society, and the Board may cause his name to be erased from the roll, as provided in Section 2 of these By-Laws.

MISCONDUCT.

SEC. 21. Any member who shall abstract from the hall of the Society any newspaper or magazine, or who shall destroy or mutilate the same; or who shall deface or mutilate any of the books of record of the Society, or the register of voters used in the election of members, by affixing his signature thereto in an unnecessarily conspicuous manner, so as to cover up or in any way to disfigure the signatures of other members voting, shall, after presentment by the Board of Directors or by any member of the Society, and after proper investigation and conviction by a committee appointed by the Society for that purpose, be adjudged guilty of misconduct and be liable to the penalties prescribed by Article XVIII of the Constitution.

AMENDMENTS.

SEC. 22. No By-Law shall be enacted, nor any amendment made thereto, unless notice of the same shall have been given at a regular monthly meeting of the Board of Directors, and shall be acted upon at the next monthly meeting of the Board, not less than four weeks after the introduction of the same.

2d. No dogs will be permitted in any part of the premises.

3d. No playing of cards or other games will be permitted in any room other than those set apart for that purpose, and the playing of poker or any other gambling game is prohibited; and a violation of this provision shall be deemed as misconduct, and punishable as such in accordance with Article XVIII of the Constitution.

4th. Any property of the Society destroyed or broken by a member, shall be charged to such member.

5th. Smoking will not be permitted in any portion of the building except the Billiard Room, Card Room, Secretary's office, and the office of the Board of Directors when the Board is not in session. Pipe-smoking will not be allowed in the Secretary's office or the Directors' room at any time.

3d. No member shall take away from the reading room or parlors, on any pretext whatever, any newspaper, pamphlet, books or other property of the Society, or in any way mutilate, injure or destroy the same, under such penalty as may be imposed by the Board of Directors, not less than the sum of twenty-five dollars for each offense.

SEC. 25. The Marshal will attend at all the meetings of the Society and observe that the members enroll their names upon the register of meetings, and perform such other duties during the sessions of the Society as the presiding officer may properly require as to order and decorum.

He will have the care of Pioneer Place, that the same shall not be "encumbered or obstructed," contrary to the agreement made between the owners on the 20th day of May, 1885.

He will report to the President any violation of the several provisions enumerated in Section 23 of the By-Laws.

The Board of Directors shall determine the compensation to be paid to the Marshal.

SEC. 26. No officer or member of any Committee of this Society shall receive compensation for services rendered unless previous to the rendition of the services otherwise provided for by resolution by the Board of Directors and entered on the minutes.

SEC. 28. No discussions on political or religious subjects shall be held in the Hall of this Society.

OBITUARY REGULATIONS.

THE FOLLOWING REGULATIONS SHALL BE OBSERVED BY THE SOCIETY OF CALIFORNIA PIONEERS:

FIRST.—Upon the decease of any person who has been elected a member of the Society of California Pioneers, the Hall flag shall be lowered at half-mast in respect to his memory.

SECOND.—Upon the decease of any life or contributing member at San Francisco, Oakland, Alameda or Berkeley, a delegation of members shall be requested to attend his funeral, which shall be chosen in the following manner:

All the names of the life and contributing members residing at or doing business in San Francisco, Oakland, Alameda or Berkeley, shall be written on separate papers or ballots, and placed in a box prepared for that purpose, and on the first Monday in each month the Marshal shall draw from the box, in the presence of the Secretary, the names of the members to the number of forty-nine, who shall constitute the funeral delegation and serve to the first Monday, inclusive, in the next succeeding month. No name shall be twice drawn until the whole number of names shall have been exhausted. And it shall be the duty of the Marshal to report the names of the delegates to the Society, and notify them of the object and the duration of their appointment; and upon the demise of any life or contributing member as above designated, he shall convene the delegates, and other members who may desire to join, at the Hall of the Society, and proceed with them, as the Marshal, to the funeral of such member, unless otherwise desired by the friends of the deceased.

THIRD.—It shall be the duty of the Marshal to carry out the foregoing regulations, and to keep a record of his proceedings.

STANDING RULES AND ORDERS.

ORDER OF BUSINESS.

- 1st. Reading, correction and approval of the minutes of the preceding meeting.
- 2d. Reading of the proceedings of the Board of Directors.
- 3d. Election of New Members.
- 4th. Report of the Marshal.
- 5th. Announcement of Obituary Committees.
- 6th. Reports of Standing Committees.
- 7th. Reports of Special Committees.
- 8th. Obituaries, Notices, Motions and Resolutions in their order.

PREROGATIVES AND DUTIES OF THE PRESIDENT.

9th. The President shall preserve order and decorum, may speak to questions of order in preference to other members, and shall decide questions of order, subject to appeal to the Society by any two members.

10th. He shall have a general direction of the Hall. He shall have the right to call any member to perform the duties of the Chair, but such substitutes shall not extend beyond an adjournment.

11th. There shall be such standing committees appointed by the Chair as the Society may from time to time determine, and the members thereof shall hold their office during the pleasure of the President.

ORDER AND DECORUM.

12th. If any member, in speaking or otherwise, transgresses the rules of the Society, the President shall, or any member may, call him to order—in which case the member so called to order shall immediately sit down, unless permitted to explain; and if called to order by a member, such member shall immediately state the point of order. If the point of order be sustained by the Chair, the member shall not be allowed to proceed; but if he be not sustained, then he shall be permitted to go on. No discussion of a question of order shall be allowed, unless an appeal be taken from the decision of the Chair.

13th. When two or more members shall rise at once, the President shall name the member who has the floor.

MOTIONS.

14th. No motion shall be debated until the same is seconded, and distinctly announced by the President; and, if desired by the President or a member, shall be reduced to writing, and be read by the Secretary before the same shall be debated. A motion or resolution may be withdrawn at any time before amendment or decision.

15th. A motion to adjourn, or to fix the time to which the Society will adjourn, shall always be in order (except when a member is on the floor), and shall be taken without debate.

16th. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received but—to adjourn; to lay on the table; for the previous question; to postpone to a day certain; to commit or amend; or to postpone indefinitely; which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are named, but the first three shall be decided without debate; and all incidental questions of order, arising after a motion is made for the previous question (whether on appeal or otherwise), shall be decided without debate.

STANDING RULES AND ORDERS.

17th. The previous question shall only be put when demanded by three or more members.

18th. No motion or proposition on a subject different from that under consideration shall be admitted as an amendment; but a substitute, covering the same matter, shall be deemed and held to be an amendment, and be treated in all respects as such.

19th. In filling up blanks, the least sum and the shortest time shall be put first.

20th. When the reading of any paper is called for, and the same is objected to by any member, it shall be decided without debate.

21st. At the next stated meeting succeeding that on which a final vote on any question has been taken, said vote may be reconsidered on the motion of any member; provided, notice of intention to move such reconsideration shall have been given at the meeting when such final vote was taken, by a member voting with the majority; but it shall not be in order to move a reconsideration at the same meeting at which such final vote was taken; said motion for reconsideration shall have precedence over every other motion, except a motion to adjourn.

22d. No standing rule of the Society shall be rescinded or changed, except by a vote of two-thirds of the members, when there are not less than thirty present.

23d. The rules of parliamentary practice contained in Cushing's Manual shall govern the Society in all cases to which they are applicable, and in which they are not inconsistent with the Standing Rules of the Society.

1. The qualification of members, mode of election and terms of admission to membership.

2. The fees of admission and dues to be paid to their treasury by their members.

3. The number of members that shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of the corporation, and that election of officers of the corporation by a meeting so constituted shall be as valid as if there had been a majority of the members present thereat and voting.

4. The expulsion and suspension of members for misconduct or non-payment of dues; also for restoration to membership.

5. Contracting, securing, paying and limiting the amount of their indebtedness.

6. Other regulations not repugnant to the Constitution or laws of the State and consonant with the objects of the corporation.
